

SCENIC DESIGN – FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

By Abigail Andrews

The Basic Concept

For Such a Time as this is a student written play by Bethany Vermillion. The script calls for extreme versatility in all aspects of design. The action takes place inside three different worlds, with constant hopping from one to another. The director wanted a play space with many levels more than anything else.